Projects :

Real-Time Project: Smart Suggest System (2024)

I developed a Smart Suggest System that helps users get movie recommendations based on their comments and interactions. The system analyzes what users write and suggests movies they might like, improving their overall experience. I used HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and MySQL Server to build the system.

Innovative Project: Water Quality Prediction and Alert System(2025)

This project predicts the potability of water using a Random Forest Classifier based on physicochemical parameters like pH, hardness, and turbidity. It includes data analysis and visualizations to identify key factors affecting water quality. A Streamlit web app allows users to input values and instantly check if the water is safe for drinking.

Work Experience :

Fresher- seeking an opportunity to apply my technical knowledge and contribute to a dynamic organization while growing my skills.
